Discussion With Prof. Vaidyanathan

Prof. R. Vaidyanathan and Dr. Mrityunjay Guha Majumdar discuss the economic challenges posed by COVID and how the government's expenditure policy has helped tackle them. They emphasize the need for Indian and Indic values in the battle against COVID as well as in the larger context of economy. They also discuss black money and tax havens, the role of caste as social capital in modern corporate structures and businesses. Video.

Discussion with Aditi Banerjee

USA spent $21.8 billion in 2021 on account of Valentine's Day, while in India the market size is over 22,000 crore and growing every day. But all this is futile without the human emotion of love and affection. Aditi Banerjee the author of

Hindu Love Stories brings out instances of Dharmic values, wisdom and responsibilities associated with love in Indian literature and culture. Video.

Hijab and Islam

Three young ladies, Anagha, Shruti and Vishali speak about how they were brainwashed into converting to Islam and how they reverted back to Hinduism with the help of Aarsha Vidya Samajam, a spiritual institution based out of Thiruvananthapuram in Kerala. They discuss common reasons why young impressionable women often leave Hinduism. The interaction also highlights the problem of conversion and proselytizing activities in many parts of the country, and the larger failure of Hindu leaders and intellectuals to do purvapaksha of other faiths Video.
