Breaking India 10th Anniversary

CoHNA (Coalition of Hindus of North America), in partnership with Infinity Foundation, organized "Breaking India: A Decade Later", a two-day virtual conference. Featuring eminent scholars, speakers and thought leaders, the conference discussed the impact of the groundbreaking book Breaking India by Rajiv Malhotra and Aravindan Neelakandan. Rajiv describes how he came up with the Breaking India thesis triggered by Hinduphobia in academia. He speaks on the issues - What has changed a decade later? What remains the same? Where does Indian civilization stand on the world stage? What is at stake for allies of India and those who admire India's ancient philosophy and cultural ethos? How can the Indian community confront this challenge globally and collectively? Video.
