Launch of Wisdom Sutra

In July 2022, we launched our much-anticipated animated explainer video series called 'Wisdom Sutras'.

In this limited series of five-minute to ten-minute videos, Rajiv Malhotra explains the core concepts and key ideas of his books and scholarship in an engaging, lively and impactful way. Some of the ideas covered in this series include Western Universalism, differences between civilizations, digestion of cultures, Sanskrit and Sanskriti and more.

What is a Predator Civilization & Digestion of Cultures?

In this short clip, Rajiv Malhotra explains the nature of predator civilizations, their impact on other civilizations, appropriation of cultures, cultural genocide and more. Video.

Moron Smriti vs Intellectual Kshatriyata

In this short clip, Rajiv Malhotra explains the moronization of the masses and the meaning of MORON SMRITI. The abject apathy of society can lead to societal degradation and the gradual loss of its sovereignty.

Various questions are briefly discussed here, including: are all religions really the same? Is escapism of some Hindus based on incorrect interpretations of texts justified? Video.

Forest Religion vs Desert Religion

Rajiv Malhotra explains the difference between the dharmic faiths and Abrahamic religions using the analogy of life in the forest vs. in the desert. The dharmic and the Abrahamic faiths also trace their origins to the forest and desert, respectively. Forest and desert are two opposed ecosystems that give birth to unique cultures, religions and thoughts. The important question is whether belief systems which emanated from such different sources can possibly coexist and if so what is the way forward. Video.

Battle for Sanskrit: Whose Interpretations?

Rajiv Malhotra explains the Battle for Sanskrit, busting the colonial myths and superimposition. The elite and privileged academics of the Ivory towers continue to tout the colonial narratives and paint a negative image of Sanskrit. But is Sanskrit really oppressive, bad and discriminatory?
